The- MODERN-Day Bible Translations

An Expose ' On The-Problems In Modern-Day Translations

Exerts From Robert Young, of Young's Analytical Concordance To The Bible and YOUNG'S Literal Translation of the HOLY BIBLE:

"The inspiration of the Bible extends only to the original text, as it came from the pens of the original writers, therefore, not to any of the 'translations' ever made by man, however aged, venerable, or good ; and only, in so far as any of these adhere to the original – neither adding to nor omitting from it one particle – are they of any real value, to the extent that they vary from the original, the doctrine of verbal inspiration is lost, so far as that version is concerned."

"A strictly literal rendering may not be so pleasant to the ear, as one where the apparent sense is chiefly aimed at, yet it is not euphony but truth that ought to be sought, and where in such a version as the one commonly in use in this country, there are scarcely two consecutive verses where there is some departure from the original, such as those indicated, and where these variations may be counted by tens of thousands, as admitted on all hands, it is difficult to see how verbal inspiration can be of the least practical use to those who depend upon that version alone."

Paraphrasing Robert Young.... There is NO 'Future' tense in Hebrew, future tense is expressed as 'present' tense.

Other Problems With The-Translations:

... "the Hebrew verb nathan (sometimes also a noun), which is rendered by the King James translators in sixty-seven different ways"... -- Robert Young.

The above final Quote by Young, expresses what CAN NOT BE, if one is guided towards the-truth in the scripture. It is IMPOSSIBLE for one English word, to do the business for sixty-seven other Hebrew, or Greek words. This expresses nothing other than a FRAUD in our modern day translations. Perhaps this is the reason King James had his 'lamp put out,' which is an idiom that means, having your seed-line cut off; which is what happened when his son, King Charles had his head cut off. In other words, the 'evidence' is, that King James was cursed.

IN essence, the King James Bible is merely a theft of intellectual property, that was stolen from William Tyndale. The KJV is in all actuality, ninety-percent William Tyndale, and all the KJV Translators had to do, was to REMOVE anything, that had the potential to really set someone free from the government. They didn't want that.

The above statement is a FACT of history that anyone can research for themselves, as I am looking at my copy of Tyndale in front of me as I make this statement. Another fact is that, Tyndale's Introduction is the most sophisticated introduction in ALL of modern translation history. William Tyndale was in essence, an enlightened intellectual genius! The only thing that the KJV 'controllers' had to do was to destroy the great work of Tyndale, cover it's true origin and then take credit for what was merely the illusion of 'religious freedom'. See, Appendix A.

... The Enlightened only want The-Truth, and deep from the trees root... It Is All An Open Secret !

The - Odes, or Ode'oms of Solomon

Which Means; The-Direction of The-Many-Colors and Sounds of The-Solitary-Peace!

The - Great-Epic, Christian-Poems, of The-Moonda.

- An Introduction, Exerted from, Arch-Bishop, Wake, 1863 -

(With Commentary in Italics, by, dezert-owl.)

HERE are some of the most beautiful songs of peace and enlightenment, that the world possesses. Yet their origin, the date of their writing (Most likely from around A.D. 70), and the exact meaning of many of the verses, will remain one of the great literary mysteries.' (Here Arch-Bishop Wake, just admits that he is not enlightened,; which really has everything to do with the-'Unseen-Hands' Total-Control of the-Diction of the day, of the-Literature, and thus, our very own spiritual awakening, and yet, he is an 'Arch-Bishop'!?!#, just add it up!)

'They have come down to us in a single and very ancient document, written within the-Syriac-Aramaic tongue.' (This next sentence here, I am leaving out, as he then makes the-utter nonsensical-assertion, that these writings, must have originally been penned in Greek; yet, all the- preliminary-followers of Jesus/ Yahshuah't, all spoke Syriac, or Western-Aramaic, almost exclusively.) 'Critical debate has raged around these Odes; one of the most plausible explanations is, that they are the-songs of newly 'baptized' Christians of the first-Century.' (Not likely, as they are so sophisticated, by its nature and 'virtue,' that they could have only been written by someone, who was experienced in the- pure-walk and was clearly fulfilled, by the-receiving the-Æternal-Breath, or The-Holy-Spirit; and these implications are made very clear in the-expressions them-selves.)

'They are lacking in any historical context. Their radiance is no reflection of other days.' (That would make sense, since the- Kingdom of Heaven is universal and found within, and within the- present moment; thus the-writer(s) are writing from within the-kingdom of Lyghte and are not of this earth. They are a reflection of, the-'Day-without-End.') 'They do not borrow from either, the- Old-Testament, nor from the Gospels. The inspiration of these verses is first-hand. They remind you of Aristides' remark, "A new people with whom something Divine is mingled." Here is vigor and insight to which we can find parallels only in the- most exalted parts of the-Scripture.' (What an indictment against his own 'spirituality, and non-ænlightenment, he admits that he is not to be compared with them.')

For these dazzling mystery odes, we owe our translation to; J. Rendel Harris, M.A., Hon. Fellow of Clare College, Cambridge. He says about them: "There does not seem to be anything about which every-one seems agreed, unless it be, that the- Odes are of singular beauty and of high spiritual value."

(What we will never know for sure, considering the-vast and wonderful collection of these lost-writings, preserved for us by, Arch-Bishop, Wake, is, was he also one of the 'propagandist,' participating in the- control of the 'diction' and the- true- origin of these writings, or was he simply blinded, by his own 'Beast-System,' that he served?) - dezert-owl.

... "Now I have heard it declared by some, who say that: 'Unless I can find it written in the original writings, I will not recognize it to be written within my own scriptures.' But then, once it has been plainly revealed to them, that this is the way that it has been written; they then respond back with what is laying there before them, within their own corrupted texts."

1 ... I put on. 2 And his members are with him. And on them do I stand, and He loves me: 3 For I should not have known love the Lord, if not loved me. 4 For who is able to distinguish love except the one that is loved? 5. I love the beloved and my soul loves Him: 6 And where His rest is, there also am I; 7 And I shall be no strangers for with the Lord Most High and Merciful there is no grudging. 8 I have been united to Him, for the Lover has found the Beloved, 9 And because I shall love Him that is the Son, I shall become a son;. 10 For he that is joined to Him that is immortal, will also himself become immortal; 11 And he who has pleasure in the Living One, will become living. 12 This is the Spirit of the Lord, which doth not lie, which teacheth the sons of men to know His ways. 13 Be wise and understanding and vigilant. The ancient one shall not be perverted by those which are inferior to it. You have given Your heart, O Lord, to Your believers. 4. Never will You be idle, nor will You be without fruits; 5. For one hour of Your faith is more excellent than all days and years. 6. For who shall put on Your grace and be rejected? 7. Because Your seal is known; and Your creatures are known to it. 8. For all was manifest to You as God, and was set in order from the beginning before You. 15. And You, O Lord, have made all. Hallelujah. Ode 5 1. I praise You, O Lord, because I love You. 2. O Most High, forsake me not, for You are my hope. 3. Freely did I receive Your grace, may I live by it. 4. grace have been given to us. 6 And the praise of His name He gave us: our spirits praise His holy Spirit. 7 For there went forth a stream and became a river great and broad; 8 For it flooded and broke up everything and it brought (water) to the Temple; 9 And the restrainers of the children of men were not able to restrain it, nor the arts of those whose business it is to restrain waters; 10 For it spread over the face of the whole earth, and filled everything: and all the thirsty upon earth were given to drink of it; 11 And thirst was relieved and quenched: for from the Most High the draught was given. 12 Blessed then are the ministers of that draught who are entrusted with that water 13 They have assuaged the dry lips, and the will that had fainted they have raised up; 14 And souls that were near departing they have caught back from death: 15 And limbs that had fallen they straightened and set up: 16 They gave strength for their feebleness and light to their eyes: 17 For everyone knew them in the Lord, and they lived by the water of life forever. Hallelujah. Ode 7 A wonderfully, simple and joyful psalm on the Incarnation. 1 As the impulse of anger against evil, so is the impulse of joy over what is lovely, and brings in of its fruits without restraint: 2 My joy is the Lord and my impulse is toward Him: this path of mine is excellent: 3 For I have a helper, the Lord. 4 He hath caused me to know Himself, without grudging, by His simplicity: His kindness has humbled His greatness. 5 He became like me, in order that I might receive Him: He was reckoned like myself in order that I might put Him on; 7 And I trembled not when I saw Him: because He was gracious to me: 8 Like my nature He became that I might learn Him and like my form, that I might not turn back from Him: 9 The Father of knowledge is the word of knowledge: 10 He who created wisdom is wiser than His works: 11 And He who created me when yet I was not knew what I should do when I	1. So that nothing shall be contrary, and nothing shall rise up against Him. 6. The Lord has multiplied his knowledge, and He was zealous that those things should be known which through His grace have been given to us. 7. And His praise He gave us on account of His name, our spirits praise His Holy Spirit. 8. For there went forth a stream, and it became a river great and broad; indeed it carried away everything, and it shattered and brought it to the Temple. 9. And the barriers which were built by men were not able to restrain it, nor even the arts of them who habitually restrain water. 10. For it spread over the surface of all the earth, and it filled everything. 11. Then all the thirsty upon the earth drank, and thirst was relieved and quenched; 12. For from the Most High the drink was given. 13. Blessed, therefore, are the ministers of that drink, who have been entrusted with His water. 14. They have refreshed the parched lips, and have aroused the paralyzed will. 15. Even living persons who were about to expire, they have held back from death. 16. And limbs which have collapsed, they have restored and set up. 17. They gave strength for their coming, and light for their eyes. 18. 1 Open your ears and I will speak to you. Give me your souls that I may also give you my soul, 2 The word of the Lord and His good pleasures, the holy thought which He has devised concerning his Messiah. 3 For in the will of the Lord is your salvation, and His thought is everlasting life; and your end is immortality. 4 Be enriched in God the Father, and receive the thought of the Most High. 5 Be strong and be redeemed by His grace. 6 For I announce to you peace, to you His saints; 6 That none of those who hear may fall in war, and that those again who have known Him may not perish, and that those who receive may not be ashamed. 8 An everlasting crown forever is Truth. Blessed are they who set it on their heads: 9 A stone of great price is it; and there have been wars on account of the crown. 10 And righteousness hath taken it and hath given it to you. 11 Put on the crown in the true covenant of the Lord. 12 And all those who have conquered shall be written in His book. 13 For their book is victory which is yours. And she (Victory) sees you before her and wills that you shall be saved. Hallelujah. ODE 10. A vigorous little Ode in which Christ Himself is the speaker. 1 The Lord hath directed my mouth by His word: and He hath opened my heart by His light: and He hath caused to dwell in me His deathless life; 2 And gave me that I might speak the fruit peace: 3 To convert the souls of them who are willing to come to Him; and to lead captive a good captivity for freedom. 4 I was strengthened and made mighty and took the world captive; 5 And it became to me for the praise of the Most High, and of God my Father. 6 And the Gentiles were gathered together who were scattered abroad. 7 And I was unpolluted by my love for them, because they confessed me in high places: and the traces of the light were set upon their heart: 8 And they walked in my life and were saved and became my people for ever and ever. Hallelujah.	with affection, you who love; 12. For I turn not my face from my own, because I know them. 13. And before they had existed, I recognized them; and imprinted a seal on their faces. 14. I fashioned their members, and my own breasts I prepared for them, that they might drink my holy milk and live by it. 15. I am pleased by them, and am not ashamed by them. 16. For my workmanship are they, and the strength of my thoughts. 17. Therefore who can stand against my work? Or who is not subject to them? 18. I willed and fashioned mind and heart, and they are my own. And upon my right hand I have set my elect ones. 19. And my righteousness goes before them, and they shall not be deprived of my name; for it is with them. 20. Pray and increase, and abide in the love of the Lord; 21. And you who were loved in the Beloved, and you who are kept in Him who lives, and you who are saved in Him who was saved. 22. And you shall be found incorrupt in all ages, on account of the name of your Father. Hallelujah. Ode 9 1. Open your ears, and I shall speak to you. 2. Give me yourself, so that I may also give you myself. 3. The word of the Lord and His desires, the holy thought which He has thought concerning His Messiah. 4. For in the will of the Lord is your life, and His purpose is eternal life, and your perfection is incorruptible. 5. Be enriched in God the Father; and receive the purpose of the Most High. Be strong and redeemed by His grace. 6. For I announce peace to you, His holy ones, so that none of those who hear shall fall in the war. 7. And also that those who have known Him may not perish, and so that those who received Him may not be ashamed.

ODE 11. A beautiful sketch of Paradise regained and the blessedness of those who have returned to the privileges of the fallen Adam. 1 My heart was cloven and its flower appeared; and grace sprang up in it: and it brought forth fruit to the Lord, 2 For the Most High clave my heart by His Holy Spirit and searched my affection towards Him: and filled me with His love. 3 And His opening of me became my salvation; and I ran in His way in His peace even in the way of truth: 4 from the beginning and even to the end I acquired His knowledge: 5 And I was established upon the rock of truth, where He had set me up: 6 And speaking waters touched my lips from the fountain of the Lord plenteously: 7 And I drank and was inebriated with the living water that doth not die; 8 And my inebriation was not one without knowledge, but I forsook vanity and turned to the Most High my God, 9 And I was enriched by His bounty, and I forsook the folly which is diffused over the earth; and I stripped it off and cast it from me: 10 And the Lord renewed me in His raiment, and possessed me by His light, and from above He gave me rest in incorruption; 11 And I became like the land which blossoms and rejoices in its fruits: 12 And the Lord was like the sun shining on the face of the land; 13 He lightened my eyes and my face received the dew; the pleasant odour of the Lord; 14 And He carried me to His Paradise; where is the abundance of the pleasure, of the Lord; 15 And I worshipped the Lord on account of His glory; and I said, Blessed, O Lord, are they who are planted in thy land and those who have a place in thy Paradise; 16 And they grow by the fruits of the trees. And they have changed from darkness to light. 17 Behold! all thy servants are fair, who do good works, and turn away from wickedness to the pleasantness that is thine: 18 And they have turned back the bitterness of the trees from them, when they were planted in thy land; 19 And everything	8. An everlasting crown is Truth; blessed are they who set it on their head. 9. It is a precious stone, for the wars were on account of the crown. 10. To convert the lives of those who desire to come to Him, and to lead those who are captive into freedom. 4. I took courage and became strong and captured the world, and the captivity became mine for the glory of the Most High, and of God my Father. 5. And the Gentiles who had been dispersed were gathered together, but I was not defiled by my love for them, because they had praised me in high places. 6. My heart was pruned and its flower appeared, then grace sprang up in it, and my heart produced fruits for the Lord. 2. For the Most High circumcised me by His Holy Spirit, then He uncovered my inward being towards Him, and filled me with His love. 3. And His circumcising became my salvation, and I ran in the Way, in His peace, in the way of truth. 4. From the beginning until the end I

became like a relic of thyself, and memorial for ever of thy faithful works. 20 For there is abundant room in thy Paradise, and nothing is useless therein; 21 But everything is filled with fruit; glory be to thee, O God, the delight of Paradise for ever. Hallelujah. ODE 12. An exceptionally high level of spiritual thought. 1 He hath filled me with words of truth; that I may speak the same; 2 And like the flow of waters flows truth from my mouth, and my lips show forth His fruit. 3 And He has caused His knowledge to abound in me, because the mouth of the Lord is the true Word, and the door of His light; 4 And the Most High hath given it to His words, which are the interpreters of His own beauty, and the repeaters of His praise, and the confessors of His counsel and the heralds of His thought and the chasteners of His servants. 5 For the swiftness of the Word is inexpressible, and like its expression is its swiftness and force; 6 And its course knows no limit. Never doth it fail, but it stands sure, and it knows not descent nor the way of it. 7 For as its work is, so is its end: for it is light and the dawning of thought; 8 And by it the worlds talk one to the other; and in the Word there were those that were silent; 9 And from it came love and concord; and they spake one to the other whatever was theirs; and they were penetrated by the Word; 10 And they knew Him who made them, because they were in concord; for the mouth of the Most High spake to them; and His explanation ran by means of it: 11 For the dwelling-place of the Word is man: and its truth is love. 12 Blessed are they who by means thereof have understood everything, and have known the Lord in His truth. Hallelujah. ODE 13. A strange little Ode. 1 Behold! the Lord is our mirror: open the eyes and see them in Him: and learn	received His knowledge. 5. And I was established upon the rock of truth, where He had set me. 6. And speaking waters touched my lips from the fountain of the Lord generously. 7. And so I drank and became intoxicated, from the living water that does not die. 8. And my intoxication did not cause ignorance, but I abandoned vanity, 9. And turned toward the Most High, my God, and was enriched by His favors. 10. And I rejected the folly cast upon the earth, and stripped it off and cast it from me. 11. And the Lord renewed me with His garment, and possessed me by His light. 12. And from above He gave me immortal rest, and I became like the land that blossoms and rejoices in its fruits. 13. And the Lord is like the sun upon the face of the land. 14. My eyes were enlightened, and my face received the dew; 15. And my breath was refreshed by the pleasant fragrance of the Lord. 16. And He took me to His Paradise, wherein is the wealth of the Lord's pleasure. I beheld blooming and fruit-bearing trees, And self-grown was their crown. Their branches were sprouting and their fruits were shining. From an immortal land were their roots. And a river of gladness was irrigating them, And round about them in the land of eternal life. 17. Then I worshipped the Lord because of His magnificence. 18. And I said, Blessed, O Lord, are they who are planted in Your land, and who have a place in Your Paradise; 19. And who grow in the growth of Your trees, and have passed from darkness into light. 20. Behold, all Your laborers are fair, they who work good works, and turn from wickedness to your pleasantness. 21. For the pungent odor of the trees is changed in Your land,

Hallelujah. ODE 14. This Ode is as beautiful in style as the canonical Psalter. 1 As the eyes of a son to his father so are my eyes, O Lord at all times towards thee. 2 For with thee are my consolations and my delight. 3 Turn not away thy mercies from me, O Lord: and take not thy kindness from me. 4 Stretch out to me, O Lord, at all times thy right hand: and be my guide even unto the end, according to thy good pleasure. 5 Let me be well-pleasing before thee, because of thy glory and because of thy name: 6 Let me be preserved from evil, and let thy meekness, O Lord, abide with me, and the fruits of thy love. 7 Teach me the Psalms of thy truth, that I may bring forth fruit in thee: 8 And open to me the harp of thy Holy Spirit, that with all its notes I may praise thee, O Lord. 9 And according to the multitude of thy tender mercies, so thou shalt give to me; and hasten to grant our petitions; and thou art able for all our needs. Hallelujah. Ode 15. One of the loveliest Odes an this unusual collection. 1 As the sun is the joy to them that seek for its daybreak, so is my joy the Lord; 2 Because He is my Sun and His rays have lifted me up and His light hath dispelled all darkness from my face. In Him I have acquired eyes and have seen His holy day: 4 Ears have become mine and I have heard His truth. 5 The thought of knowledge hath been mine, and I have been delighted through Him. 6 The way of error I have left, and have walked towards Him and have received salvation from Him, without grudging. 7 And according to His bounty He hath given to me and according to His	22. And there is nothing in it which is barren, but everything is filled with fruit. 24. Glory be to You, O God, the delight of Paradise for ever. Hallelujah. Ode 12 1. He has filled me with words of truth, that I may proclaim Him. 2. And like the flowing of waters, truth flows from my mouth, and my lips declare His fruits. 3. And He has caused His knowledge to abound in me, because the mouth of the Lord is the true Word, and the entrance of His light. 4. And the Most High has given Him to His generations, which are the interpreters of His beauty, And the narrators of His glory, And the confessors of His purpose, And the preachers of His mind, And the teachers of His works. 5. For the subtlety of the Word is inexpressible, and like His utterance so also is His swiftness and His acuteness, for limitless is His progression. 6. He never falls but remains standing, and one cannot comprehend His descent or His way. 7. For as His work is, so is His expectation, for He is the light and dawning of thought. 8. And by Him the generations spoke to one another, and those that were silent acquired speech. 9. And from Him came love and equality, and they spoke one to another that which was theirs. 10. And they were stimulated by the Word, and knew Him who made them, because they were in harmony. 11. For the mouth of the Most High spoke to them, and His exposition prospered through Him. 12. For the dwelling place of the Word is man, and His truth is love. 13. Hallelujah. ODE 16. The beauty of God's creation. 1 As the work of the husband man is the ploughshare: and the work of the steersman is the guidance of the ship: 2 So also my work is the Psalm of the Lord: my craft and praises: 3 Because His love hath nourished my heart, and even to my lips His fruits He poured out. 4 For my love is the Lord, and I therefore I will sing unto Him: 5 For I am made strong in His praise, and I have faith in Him. 6 I will open my mouth and His spirit will utter in me the glory of the Lord and His beauty; the work of His hands and the operation of His fingers: 7 The multitude of His mercies and the strength of His word. 8 For the word of the Lord searches out all things, both the invisible and that which reveals His thought; 9 For the eye sees His works and the ear hears His thought; 10 He spread out the earth and He settled the waters in the sea: 11 He measured the heavens and fixed the stars: and He established the creation and set it up: 12 And He rested from His works: 13 And created things run in their courses, and do their works: 14 And they know not how to stand and be idle; and His heavenly hosts are subject to His word. 15 The treasure-chamber of the light is the sun, and the treasury of the darkness is the night: 16 And He made the sun for the day that it may be bright, but night brings darkness over the face of the land; 17 And their alternations one to the other speak the beauty of God: 18 And there is nothing that is without the Lord; for He was before any thing came into being: 19 And the worlds were made by His word,	have known the Lord in His truth. Stretch out to me, my Lord, at all times, Your right hand, and be to me a guide till the end according to Your will. 5. Let me be pleasing before You, because of Your glory, and because of Your name let me be saved from the Evil One. 6. And let Your gentleness, O Lord, abide with me, and the fruits of Your love. 7. Teach me the odes of Your truth, that I may produce fruits in You. 8. And open to me the harp of Your Holy Spirit, so that with every note I may praise You, O Lord. 9. And I walked after it and did not wander: 6 And all. that have seen me were amazed: and I was regarded by them as a strange person: 7 And He who knew and brought me up is the Most High in all His perfection. And He glorified me by His kindness, and raised my thoughts to the height of His truth. 8 And from thence He gave me the way of His precepts and I opened the doors that were closed,. 9 And brake in pieces the bars of iron: but my iron melted and dissolved before me; 10 Nothing appeared closed to me: because I was the door of everything. 11 And I went over all my bond men to loose them; that I might not leave any man bound or binding: 12 And I imparted my knowledge without grudging: and my prayer was in my love: 13 And I sowed my fruits in hearts, and transformed them into myself: and they received my blessing and lived; 14 And they were gathered to me and were saved; because they were to me as my own members and I was their head. Sicknesses removed from my body, and it stood to the Lord by His will. For His kingdom is true. 4 O Lord, for the sake of them that are deficient do not remove thy word from me! 5 Neither for the sake of their works do thou restrain from me thy perfection! 6 Let not the luminary be conquered by the darkness; nor let truth flee away from falsehood. 7 Thou wilt appoint me to victory; our Salvation is thy right hand. And thou wilt receive men from all quarters. 8 And thou wilt preserve whosoever is held in evils: 9 Thou art my God. Falsehood and death are not in thy mouth: 10 For thy will is perfection; and vanity thou knowest not, 11 Nor does it know thee. 12 And error thou knowest not, 13 Neither does it know thee. 14 And ignorance appeared like a blind man; and like the foam of the sea, 15 And they supposed of that vain thing that it was something great; 16 And they too came in likeness of it and became vain; and those have understood who have known and meditated; 17 And they have not been corrupt in their imagination; for such were in the mind of the Lord; 18 And they mocked at them that were walking in error; 19 And they spake truth from the inspiration which the Most High breathed into them; Praise and great comeliness to His name. The mention of the Dove refers to a lost Gospel to which there are rare references in ancient writings.

1 The Dove fluttered over the Messiah, because He was her head; and she sang over Him and her voice was heard: 2 And the inhabitants were afraid and the sojourners were moved: 3 The birds dropped their wings and all creeping things died in their holes: and the abysses were opened which had been hidden; and they cried to the Lord like women in travail: 4 And no food was given to them, because it did not belong to them; 5 And they sealed up the abysses with the seal of the Lord. And they perished, in the thought those that had existed from ancient times; 6 For they were corrupt from the beginning; and the end of their corruption was life: 7 And every one of them that was imperfect perished: for it was not possible to give them a word that they might remain: 8 And the Lord destroyed the imaginations of all them that had not the truth with them. 9 For they who in their hearts were lifted up were deficient in wisdom and so they were rejected, because the truth was not with them. 10 For the Lord disclosed His way and spread abroad His grace: and those who understood it, know His holiness. Hallelujah.

Back again to personal experience.

1 I was rescued from my bonds and unto thee, my God, I fled: 2 For thou art the right hand of my Salvation and my helper. 3 Thou hast restrained those that rise up against me, 4 And I shall see him no more: because thy face was with me, which saved me by thy grace. 5 But I was despised and rejected in the eyes of many: and I was in their eyes like lead, 6 And strength was mine from myself and help. 7 Thou didst set me a lamp at my right hand and at my left: and in me there shall be nothing that is not bright: 8 And I was clothed with the covering of thy Spirit, and thou didst remove from me my raiment of skin; 9 For thy right hand lifted me up and removed bonds, so that I might unbind them;

5. He who overthrew by my hands the dragon with seven heads, and set me at his roots that I might destroy his seed;

6. You were there and helped me, and in every place Your name surrounded me.

7. Your right hand destroyed his evil venom, and Your hand leveled the Way for those who believe in You.

8. And It chose them from the graves, and separated them from the dead ones.

9. It took dead bones and covered them with flesh.

10. But they were motionless, so It gave them energy for life.

11. Incorruptible was Your way and Your face; You have brought Your world to corruption, that everything might be resolved and renewed.

12. And the foundation of everything is Your rock. And upon it You have built Your kingdom, and it became the dwelling-place of the holy ones.

Hallelujah.

Ode 23

1. Joy is for the holy ones. And who shall put it on but they alone?

2. Grace is for the elect ones. And who shall receive it but they who trusted in it from the beginning?

3. Love is for the elect ones. And who shall put it on but they who possessed it from the beginning?

4. Walk in the knowledge of the Lord, and you will know the grace of the Lord generously; both for His exultation and for the perfection of His knowledge.

5. And His thought was like a letter, and His will descended from on high.

6. And it was sent like an arrow which from a bow has been forcibly shot.

7. And many hands rushed to the letter, in order to catch it, then take and read it.

8. But it escaped from their fingers; and they were afraid of it and of the seal which was upon it.

ODE 34.

True poetry--pure and simple.

1 No way is hard where there is a simple heart. 2 Nor is there any wound where the thoughts are upright: 3 Nor is there any storm in the depth of the illuminated thought: 4 Where one is surrounded on every side by beauty, there is nothing that is divided. 5 The likeness of what is below is that which is above; for everything is above: what is below is nothing but the imagination of those that are without knowledge. 6 Grace has been revealed for your salvation. Believe and live and be saved. Hallelujah.

ODE 35.

"No cradled child more softly lies than I: come soon, eternity."

1 The dew of the Lord in quietness He distilled upon me: 2 And the cloud of peace He caused to rise over my head, which guarded me continually; 3 It was to me for salvation: everything was shaken and they were affrighted; 4 And there came forth from them a smoke and a judgment; and I was keeping quiet in the order of the Lord: 5 More than shelter was He to me and more than foundation. 6 And I was carried like a child by mother: and He gave me milk, the dew of the Lord: 7 And I grew great by His bounty, and rested in His perfection, 8 And I spread out my hands in the lifting up of my soul: and I was exalted me, and according to His great honor He lifted me up.

4. And he caused me to ascend from the depths of Sheol, and from the mouth of death He drew me.

5. And I humbled my enemies, and He justified me by His grace.

6. For I believed in the Lord's Messiah, and considered that He is the Lord.

7. And He revealed to me His sign, and He led me by His light.

8. And He gave me the scepter of His power, that I might subdue the devices of the people, and humble the power of the mighty.

9. To make war by His Word, and to take victory by His power.

10. And the Lord overthrew my enemy by His Word, and he became like the dust which a breeze carries off.

11. And I gave praise to the Most High, because He has magnified His servant and the son of His maidservant.

Hallelujah.

4. For much sweeter is its water than honey, and the honeycomb of bees is not to be compared with it;

6. And it came boundless and invisible, and until it was set in the middle they knew it not.

7. Blessed are they who have drunk from it, and have refreshed themselves by it.

made right with the Most High and I was redeemed with Him. Hallelujah. ODE 36. Theologians have never agreed on an explanation of this perplexing Ode. 1 I rested in the Spirit of the Lord: and the Spirit raised me on high: 2 And made me stand on my feet in the height of the Lord, before His perfection and His glory, while I was praising Him by the composition of His songs. 3 The Spirit brought me forth before the face of the Lord: and, although a son of man, I was named the Illuminate, the Son of God: 4 While I praised amongst the praising ones, and great was I amongst the mighty ones. 5 For according to the greatness of the Most High, so He made me: and like His own newness He renewed me; and He anointed me from His own perfection: 6 And I became one of His Neighbours; and my mouth was opened; like a cloud of dew; 7 And my heart poured out as it were a gushing stream of righteousness, 8 And my access to Him was in peace; and I was established by the Spirit of His government. Hallelujah. ODE 37. An elementary Ode. 1 I stretched out my hands to my Lord: and to the Most High I raised my voice: 2 And I spake with the lips of my heart; and He heard me when my voice reached Him: 3 His answer came to me and gave me the fruits of my labours; 4 And it gave me rest by the grace of the Lord. Hallelujah. ODE 38. A beautiful description of the power of truth. 1 I went up to the light of truth as if into a chariot: 2 And the Truth took me and led me: and carried me across pits and gulleys; and from the rocks and the waves it preserved me: 3 And it became to me a haven of Salvation: and set me	of Him; and contempt received no path, for it was submerged by the truth of the Lord. 3. He opened His mouth and spoke grace and joy; and recited a new chant to His name. 4. Then He lifted his voice towards the Most High, and offered to Him those that had become sons through Him. 5. And His face was justified, because thus His Holy Father had given to Him. 6. Come forth, you who have been afflicted, and receive joy. 7. And possess yourselves through grace, and take unto you immortal life. 8. And they condemned me when I stood up, me who had not been condemned. 9. Then they divided my spoil, though nothing was owed them. 10. But I endured and held my peace and was silent, that I might not be disturbed by them. 11. But I stood undisturbed like a solid rock, which is continuously pounded by columns of waves and endures. 12. And I bore their bitterness because of humility; that I might redeem my nation and instruct it. 13. And that I might not nullify the promises to the patriarchs, to whom I was promised for the salvation of their offspring. Hallelujah. Ode 32 1. To the blessed ones the joy is from their heart, and light from Him who dwells in them; 2. And the Word of truth who is self-originate, 3. Because He has been strengthened by the Holy Power of the Most High; and He is unshaken for ever and ever. Hallelujah. Ode 33 1. But again Grace was swift and dismissed the Corruptor, and descended upon him to renounce him. 2. And he caused utter destruction before him, and corrupted all his work. 3. And he stood on the peak of a summit and cried aloud from one end of

on the arms of immortal life: 4 And it went with me and made me rest, and suffered me not to wander because it was the Truth. 5 And I ran no risk, because I walked with Him; 5 And I did not make an error 4 anything because I obeyed the Truth. 7 For Error flees away from it and meets it not: but the Truth proceeds in the right path, and 8 What ever I did not know, it made clear to me, all the poisons of error, and the plagues of death which they think to be sweetness: 9 And I saw the destroyer of destruction, when the bride who is corrupted is adorned: and the bridegroom who corrupts and is corrupted; 10 And I asked the Truth, 'Who are these?'; and He said to me, 'This is the deceiver and the error: 11 And they are alike in the beloved and in his bride: and they lead astray and corrupt the whole world: 12 And they invite many to the banquet, 13 And give them to drink of the wine of their intoxication, and remove their wisdom and knowledge, and so they make them without intelligence; 14 And then they leave them; and then these go about like madmen corrupting: seeing that they are with out heart, nor do they seek for it.' 15 And I was made wise so as not to fall into the hands of the deceiver; and I congratulated myself because the Truth went with me, 16 And I was established and lived and was redeemed, 17 And my foundations were laid on the hand of the Lord: because He established me. 18 For He set the root and watered it and fixed it and blessed it; and its fruits are for ever. 19 It struck deep and sprung up and spread out and was full and enlarged; 20 And the Lord alone was glorified in His planting and in His husbandry: by His care and by the blessing of His lips, 21 By the beautiful planting of His right hand: and by the discovery of His planting, and by the thought of His mind. Hallelujah. ODE 39. One of the few allusions to events in the Gospels ---that of our Lord walking on the Sea of Galilee 1 Great rivers are the power of the Lord:	the earth to the other. 4. Then he drew to him all those who obeyed him, for he did not appear as the Evil One. 5. However, the perfect Virgin stood, who was preaching and summoning and saying: 6. O you sons of men, return, and you their daughters, come. 7. And leave the ways of that Corruptor, and approach me. 8. And I will enter into you, and bring you forth from destruction, and make you wise in the ways of truth. 9. Be not corrupted nor perish. 10. Obey me and be saved, for I am proclaiming unto you the grace of God. 11. And through me you will be saved and become blessed. I am your judge; 12. And they who have put me on shall not be falsely accused, but they shall possess incorruption in the new world. 13. My elect ones have walked with me, and my ways I will make known to them who seek me; and I will promise them my name. Hallelujah. Ode 34 1. There is no hard way where there is a simple heart, nor barrier for upright thoughts, 2. Nor whirlwind in the depth of the enlightened thought. 3. Where one is surrounded on every side by pleasing country, there is nothing divided in him. 4. The likeness of that which is below is that which is above. 5. For everything is from above, and from below there is nothing, but it is believed to be by those in whom there is no understanding. 6. Grace has been revealed for your salvation. Believe and live and be saved. Hallelujah. Ode 35 1. The gentle showers of the Lord overshadowed me with serenity, and they caused a cloud of peace to rise over my head; 2. That it might guard me at all times. And it became salvation to me. faith. 2 And His children shall be known to Him. Therefore we will sing in His love: 3 We live in the Lord by His grace: and life we receive in His Messiah: 4 For a great day has shined upon us: and marvellous is He who has given us of His glory. 5 Let us, therefore all of us unite together in the name of the Lord, and let us honour Him in His goodness, 6 And let our faces shine in His light: and let our hearts meditate in His love by night and by day. 7 Let us exult with the joy of the Lord. 8 All those will be astonished that see me, For from another race am I; 9 For the Father of truth remembered me: He who possessed me from the beginning: 10 For His bounty begat me, and the thought of His heart: 11 And His Word is with us in all our way; 12 The Saviour who makes alive and does not reject our souls; 13 The man who was humbled, and exalted by His own righteousness, 14 The Son of the Most High appeared in the perfection of His Father; 15 And light dawned from the Word that was beforetime in Him; 16 The Messiah is truly one; and He was known before the foundation of the world, 17 That He might save souls forever by the truth of His name: a new song arises from those who love Him. ODE 42.

The Odes of Solomon, the Son of David, are ended with the following exquisite verses.

1 I stretched out my hands and approached my Lord: 2 For the stretching of my hands is His sign: 2 My expansion is the outspread tree which was set up on the way of the Righteous One. 4 And I became of no account to those who did not take hold of me and I shall be with those who love me. 5 All my persecutors are dead; and they sought after me who hoped in me, because I was alive: 6 And I rose up and am with them; and I will speak by their mouths. 7 For they have despised those who persecuted them; 8 And I lifted up over them the yoke of my love; 9 Like the arm of the bridegroom over the bride, 10 So was my yoke over those

Ode 38

1. I went up into the light of Truth as into a chariot, and the Truth led me and caused me to come.

2. And caused me to pass over chasms and gulfs, and saved me from cliffs and valleys.

3. And became for me a haven of salvation, and set me on the place of immortal life.

4. And He went with me and caused me to rest and did not allow me to err; because He was and is the Truth.

5. And there was no danger for me because I constantly walked with Him; and I did not err in anything because I obeyed Him.

6. For Error fled from Him, and never met Him.

7. But Truth was proceeding on the upright way, and whatever I did not understand He exhibited to me:

8. All the poisons of error, and pains of death which are considered sweetness.

9. And the corrupting of the Corruptor, I saw when the bride who was corrupting was adorned, and the bridegroom who corrupts and is corrupted.

10. And I asked the Truth, Who are these? And He said to me: This is the Deceiver and the Error.

11. And they imitate the Beloved and His Bride, and they cause the world to err and corrupt it.

12. And they invite many to the wedding feast, and allow them to drink the wine of their intoxication;

13. So they cause them to vomit up their wisdom and their knowledge, and prepare for them mindlessness.

14. Then they abandon them; and so they stumble about like mad and corrupted men.

15. Since there is no understanding in them, neither do they seek it.

16. But I have been made wise so as not to fall into the hands of the

that know me: 11 And as the couch that is spread in the house of the bridegroom and bride, 12 So is my love over those that believe in me. 13 And I was not rejected though I was reckoned to be so. 14 I did not perish, though they devised it against me. 13 Sheol saw me and was made miserable: 16 Death cast me up and many along with me. 17 I had gall and bitterness, and I went down with him to the utmost of his depth: 18 And the feet and the head he let go, for they were not able to endure my face: 19 And I made a congregation of living men amongst his dead men, and I spake with them by living lips: 20 Because my word shall not be void: 21 And those who had died ran towards me: and they cried and said, Son of God, have pity on us, and do with us according to thy kindness. 22 And bring us out from the bonds of darkness: and open to us the door by which we shall come out to thee. 23 For we see that our death has not touched thee. 24 Let us also be redeemed with thee: for thou art our Redeemer. 25 And I heard their voice; and my name I sealed upon their heads: 26 For they are free men and they are mine. And those who walk on them faultlessly shall not be shaken. 7. Because the sign on them is the Lord, and the sign is the Way for those who cross in the name of the Lord. 8. BY THOMAS WARD

25, ANGLESEA STREET, DUBLIN,

1st July, 1841

- PREFACE TO THE FOURTH EDITION -

The publication of “Ward’s Errata to the Protestant Bible” has disclosed a most curious and important fact, that the scriptural church of England and Ireland was originally founded on a false translation of the scriptures. It was the boast of the first reformers that, they had emancipated their disciples from the shackles of Catholic despotism, and had restored to them the freedom of the children of God : it now appears, that this ‘freedom’ consisted in reading an erroneous version of the inspired sacred writings, and venerating as the dictates of eternal Wisdom the blunders of ignorant, or interested [people with something to gain] translators. “The scriptures,” they exclaimed, “... are the sole rule of faith. Here they are, no longer concealed under the obscurity of a learned language, but exhibited to you in your native tongue. Here you will easily detect the errors of Popery, and learn the true doctrine of the Gospel.” The credulity of multitudes accepted with joy the proffered boon ; the new teachers were hailed as apostles commissioned by heaven ; and every old woman, both male and female, that could read, became an adept, if not in the knowledge of the Bible, at least in the prejudices and errors of its translators.

It is not for man to dispute the wisdom of Providence, and arraign at the bar of his private judgement the means which God may choose for the diffusion of religious knowledge. Otherwise, I must confess, there appears to me something very unaccountable in the scriptural blunders of the apostles of the reformation. The object, they said, of their mission was the dissemination of evangelic truth. If the Holy Spirit selected them for this important office, he must also have gifted them with the true knowledge of the scriptures, and, if he gifted them with the true knowledge of the scriptures, it seems to follow that he ought also to have granted them the power to make a true translation of the scriptures. The apostles of Jesus received the knowledge of tongues, that they might instruct the different nations of the earth : the apostles of the church of England and Ireland ought to have received the knowledge of, at least, the Hebrew and Greek tongues, that they might form an accurate version of the scriptures. Such a version was as necessary to that church, as the instructions of the first apostles could be to the primitive churches of Christianity. If they were apostolical, she was scriptural. However, without speculating on the cause, the fact is certain, not only from the arguments of Ward, but even from the concessions of his adversaries, that the fathers of this scriptural church gave it a version of the scriptures abounding with errors. And here it may reasonably be asked, whence arose these errors? Were they the offspring of ignorance, or design? Dr. Ryan warmly contends for the former, and endeavors to fortify his opinion by the authority of Father Simon : (a) but then, even admitting his assertions, devoid as they are of proof, and liable to objection, what are we to think of the temerity of these men, who, incompetent to the task, and conscious of their incompetency, still presumed to violate the purity of the sacred volumes, and to obtrude on their unsuspecting disciples an erroneous version as the immaculate Word of God, and as the sole and infallible guide to religious truth? Ward, on the contrary, attempts to show that the more important of their errors were committed by design ; and a curious circumstance it is, highly corroborative of his opinion, that most of their blunders are favorable to their own peculiar doctrines, and unfavorable to those of their opponents. But, if this be true, what judgement can any unprejudiced man form of these saints of the reformation? For my part, I know of no crime more foul in its own nature, more prejudicial in its consequences, more nearly allied to diabolic malignity, than that of designedly corrupting the holy scriptures, and, by such corruption, leading the sincere inquirer into error, and converting the food of life into the poison of death.

But, from whatever source, these false renderings proceeded, whether their authors were guided by policy, or misled by ignorance, this must be conceded, that if Ward has fairly established the fact, he is entitled to the gratitude of the impartial reader. The impartial reader, let him be Protestant, or Catholic, will, if his object be truth, thankfully receive the truth from whatever hand may present it to him. Hence, it was with no small surprise that I heard the clamour which was raised against the last edition of the "Errata." In parliament and out of parliament, in news-papers and pamphlets, it was stigmatized as an attempt to vilify the reformation, and to heap disgrace on the Established Church. "it was the work," observed an eminent senator, eminent for the only talent he possesses, that of religious calumny, "it was the work of one hundred and twenty Popish priests leagued to put down Protestantism." Such nonsense hardly deserves notice. If facts are to be hidden from the eye of the public, because they reflect on the character of our predecessors, let history at once be condemned to the flames. The evangelists did not conceal the treachery of Judas : why should Protestant divines wish to conceal the blunders, or the frauds of the fathers of their church?

To me, it appears, that none among the adversaries of Ward have had the courage, or the honesty to do justice to that writer. His object in compiling the "Errata," was twofold : Firstly, to prove that the versions of the scriptures on which the established creed was originally founded were extremely corrupt : and, Secondly, to show that though many errors have been since corrected, there still remain many others to correct. All this however they prudently overlook ; and by an artful confusion of times and persons, by referring to modern Bibles, the charges which he makes against those of a former age, and by affecting to consider his accusation of the clergy of Queen Elizabeth as directed against the clergy of the present reign, they pretend to convict him of misrepresentation and calumny. In this, perhaps, they may act wisely ; they certainly act unfairly. Could they have shown that Ward had attributed to the ancient English Bible errors which it did not contain, or that he had attributed to the present Bibles errors which have been corrected in them, they might have substantiated their charges against him. But this they have not attempted. They content themselves with exclaiming that many of the former corruptions have been corrected, and therefor should not have been mentioned. But why should they not? The very fact of their having been corrected is an unanswerable proof of Ward's assertion. It shows beyond the possibility of a doubt, that, the church of England, however scriptural, it may pretend to have been in its origin, was in reality founded on a false version of the scriptures ; a version which was the very Babel of confusion, which spoke sometimes the language of God and often the language of men, which had attempted to improve the lessons of eternal truth by the addition of the whims, the ignorance, the prejudices, and the falsehoods of Tyndale, Coverdale, Cranmer, Bishops, Geneva, &c., &c. *

Among the opponents of Ward, the fiercest and the only one who has attempted a full refutation of the "Errata," is Dr. Ryan. His attempt is a consequence of the grant of Ireland which Adrian IV. made to Henry II. Nay, start not, gentle reader ; the most important events may often be traced to remote and almost imperceptible causes. The attempt of Dr. Ryan is a consequence of the grant of Ireland by Adrian IV. to Henry II. By that grant the Ryans lost an extensive property ; (a) and the present Dr. is the champion reserved by heaven to revenge on Popery the injuries which she inflicted on his ancestors six centuries ago. An awful lesson this is, to the ambition of princes!

(a) Ryan's Analysis, p.5. Simon, however, in the passage referred to, does not speak of the English translator in particular, but of the Protestant translators in particular, but of the Protestant translators in general. This Dr. Ryan has thought fit to conceal from his readers.

* This is why, when you compare all of the early versions of the 'bibles,' they all appear to be virtually the same, with very little difference, or identical. This is the very proof a designed 'control.'

Go and compare at least three versions of Homer, and you will see that, each translators own version, does not even appear the same, as another translators version of Homer; and sometimes it is very difficult to even follow both translations side, by side; which simply proves out, that these ancient words are fluid and impregnated with many, many implications and meanings, that are not at all being rendered within our own sacred scriptures.

Emphasis' added are bold and, or in [brackets].

To Be Continued.
